MOMS HELPING MOMS GO GREEN!

Wee-cycle Mart Children's Consignment Sale is coming to Harford County

When: September 12th – 14th, 2008

Where: The Bel Air Moose Lodge – 310 E. Jarrettsville Road Forest Hill, MD 21050

Forest Hill, MD - Wee-cycle Mart, a huge consignment sale organized by two moms that just happen to be mother & daughter help other moms clean out & cash in. The sale includes new and like new maternity to teens fall/winter clothing, as well as toys, books, baby equipment, sports stuff, Halloween costumes, scrapbooking supplies and more. The event will be held at the Bel Air Moose Lodge in Forest Hill September 12th – 14th.

Admission is $2 or $1 & a bag of non-perishable food and benefits in part the Maryland Food Bank and Harford Family House. There is a pre-sale night for qualified first-time moms with passes on Thursday, September 11th.

"With the high cost of raising kids, it's great that moms can make some extra spending cash on their barely used kids stuff, while helping the environment by re-cycling!" states Clair Dobry, Wee-cycle Mart co-organizer.

"Moms love our sale as they can find amazing savings on all kinds child rearing necessities. And, sometimes the moms find so many bargains, they can barely fit it all in the car!" laughs Blaney Spinelli, Mrs. Dobry's daughter & co-organizer. Wee-cycle Mart will have almost 10,000 items for sale from local moms trying to keep down the cost of growing up and making Harford County more green!
